moving throughout the UK...

Moving Partnership has built up a wealth of experience of moving within the UK, Europe and beyond. We have forged long lasting relationships with many established removal companies not only in the UK but throughout Europe and within our overseas department Worldwide.

The ease of any move is down to careful planning and good organisation. With Moving Partnership our moving consultants can give you the very best advice on packing, insurance and storage options if required.

moving throughout Europe...

With our International and European service we offer a regular service to most destinations around the World. We always select the most advantageous routing, and give advice on the options of shared or exclusive deep-sea containers and in the case of urgent essentials the use of airfreight.

Our dedicated overseas consultants will guide you through the necessary customs regulations and will provide you with a detailed moving schedule, giving you peace of mind that everything is being taken care of.

moving Internationally

Using our expertise and knowledge of excellent National and International removal companies we can negotiate the best prices available for your own individual move.

Our experts can help with any aspect of your move from the smallest move to large complicated International moves, and are always available to answer your queries.
